

Superintendents Corner

Alan Hardee

Welcome to 2018. January will be a busy month for Carolina Southern Division 12.

1. The World's Greatest Hobby Train Show will be in Charlotte, NC January 13-14th at The Park Expo Center. Please stop by the booth to say hello and even volunteer to help man the booth as well.
2. 2018 Annual Division Business Meeting. The meeting will be 9:30 a.m. January 20th at Hunter Acres Baptist Church, Heman Drive, Charlotte, NC. This will be a very important meeting for everyone. It is election time and several division positions are term limited and the officers have reached the end of their terms. The following positions are available
Superintendent – Alan Hardee is eligible for another term and willing to continue if the membership desires.
Assistant Superintendent – Need nominees for this position.
Clerk - Need nominees for this position.
Paymaster - Need nominees for this position.
Director - Need nominees for this position.
Newsletter Editor – This is an appointed position. Need a volunteer.

Please send your nominations to superintendent@carolinasouthern.org or to Roy Becker at director2@carolinasouthern.org ASAP.

Also we will have a discussion about our division hosting the 2020 MER Convention. An informal poll conducted in October proved positive but we still need to hear from you.

3. RMU – Railroad Modeling University will be January 27th at Christ The King Church, 13501 S. Tryon St. Charlotte, NC. The classes will run 9a.m. till 4 p.m. Please visit our website at carolinasouthern.org for information and registration.

Hope to see everyone all 3 weekends
